

Nashville MTA/RTA Bus Operations

March 15, 2017

When will Music City Central close?

Music City Central (MCC) is expected to close by 10 a.m.

Why is MCC closing?

The closure of MCC is a requirement of the Secret Service.

Are other operations at MCC affected?

Yes, all building operations will be affected, including parking, Dunkin' Donuts and the Music City Market located on the 4th Avenue level.

Will MTA and RTA buses still operate?

Yes, all MTA and RTA buses will continue to run on Wednesday. Following the 9:45 a.m. departures from MCC, MTA and RTA buses will transition to a temporary location on 6th Avenue between Korean Veterans Boulevard and Demonbreun Street. The first buses will depart from this location beginning at 10:15 a.m. and operate from there through the remainder of the day.

Where do I catch my bus on 6th Avenue?

Bus bays will be grouped in threes and marked with signs along 6th Avenue. In addition, MTA/RTA staff will be available on-site to assist customers.

Buses that normally depart from the upper level at MCC will pick up and drop off passengers on 6th Avenue northbound facing Demonbreun Street:

- A (Bays 1-3)
- B (Bays 4-6)
- C (Bays 7-9)
- D (Bays 10-12)

Buses that normally depart from the lower level at MCC will pick up and drop off passengers on 6th Avenue southbound facing Korean Veterans Boulevard:

- F (Bays 16-18)
- G (Bays 19-21)
- H (Bays 22-24)

Will the Music City Circuit operate as normal?

The Music City Circuit will be subject to rolling street closures, based on police activity and potential sidewalk and street crowding concerns. All detours of the Circuit will be made available through real-time app alerts, on our social media channels, or by calling Customer Care at 615-862-5950.

Will my yellow Park It! Shuttle be affected?

The Park It! Shuttles are operated by the Nashville Downtown Partnership, not by MTA. If you regularly use the Park It! service and have questions about how it will be affected by events on Wednesday, please contact the Park It! Downtown staff by calling 615-743-3090.

Will my scheduled AccessRide be affected?

We advise AccessRide customers to expect delays due to high traffic volume and road closures. AccessRide staff will contact you if schedule changes are deemed necessary.

Can I buy bus tickets at the temporary location?

Unfortunately, we will not be able to provide ticket vending services at the 6th Avenue temporary station. We advise all bus riders to purchase their fares in advance, either Monday evening or over the course of the day on Tuesday. Otherwise, only limited transactions at the fare box on the bus will be possible until Thursday morning.
